

JCA Couriers Storage Terms and Conditions

THE COMPANY'S OBLIGATIONS

- 1.1. The Company will provide its services with reasonable skill and care. In the absence of prior written instruction to the Company giving sufficient detail, no particular precautions nor any special treatment need be taken or provided for the Goods.
- 1.2. In the case of bulk Goods, the Company may deal with and/or mix apparently similar goods consigned by or for the Customer without distinguishing between consignments.
- 1.3. In the case of carriage the Company's responsibility for the Goods starts when loading on the vehicle is complete and ends when the Goods are tendered for unloading. In the case of storage and / or processing it starts when they are accepted into store and ends when they are tendered for collection, or the Company becomes aware of the grounds for their removal under Condition 2.2 or on the expiry of notice under Condition 7.1 or 7.2. Where the Company provides storage and carriage it shall also be responsible for the Goods while they are transferred from its vehicle into its store and vice versa. In the case of forwarding, the Company's responsibility is only to engage or propose apparently competent contractors and to give them adequate instructions in relation to the Goods; and in this case, or where the contract is for advice, it is not responsible for the Goods themselves.
- 1.4. The Company's duty is to the Customer only and not to any third party. Any advice given is for the Customer only.
- 1.5. Unless it states otherwise in writing, where the Company provides forwarding services it operates as the Customer's agent in engaging contractors to deal with the Goods.

CUSTOMER'S UNDERTAKINGS

- 2.1. It is a condition of the contract, and the Customer warrants and undertakes, that:-
 - 2.1.1. It is either the owner of the Goods, or is authorised by the owner to accept these Conditions on the owner's behalf.
 - 2.1.2. The Goods shall be presented to the Company (and/or anyone else dealing with them) securely and properly packed in compliance with any applicable statutory regulations, recognised standards and best practice and are and will remain in a condition to be safely handled, stored and/or carried and so as not to cause injury, damage, contamination or deterioration (or the possibility of them) to any person, premises, equipment or to any other items in any way.
 - 2.1.3. Before the Company assumes any responsibility for or by reference to the Goods, the Customer will inform the Company in writing of any relevant matters; including any special precautions necessitated by the nature, weight or condition of the Goods and any statutory or other duties specific to the Goods with which the Company or others may need to comply; and will promptly after invoicing pay the Company's reasonable extra charges for complying.

- 2.1.4. It will promptly after invoicing reimburse all duties, taxes and expenses that the Company may be required to pay in respect of the Goods including where the liability to pay them arises due to the fault, other act or omission of the Company or its employees or sub-contractors.
- 2.1.5. Except to the extent previously notified in detail to, and accepted by, the Company in writing none of the Goods: are hazardous or contaminated; may cause pollution of the environment or harm to human health if they escape from their packaging; require any official consent or licence to handle, possess, deal with or carry; will at any time whilst in the care or control of the Company constitute Waste.
- 2.1.6. Where the Company is carrying the Goods, the Customer will provide a risk assessment and method statement appropriate for the Goods and any location in which they are being handled. Unless otherwise previously agreed the Customer will provide suitable facilities and equipment for, and will procure, safe and prompt loading and unloading of the Goods. The Customer will pay demurrage at the Company's standard rate if the vehicle is delayed for more than 15 minutes beyond the time reasonably needed for loading or unloading; and demurrage and storage charges if delivery is refused.
- 2.1.7. It will comply with any reasonable regulations of the Company relating to handling, carriage, storage or forwarding of Goods (and ancillary matters) which are notified in writing from time to time.
- 2.1.8. Information given by or on its behalf shall be materially correct and complete.
- 2.2. The Customer will indemnify the Company against any loss or damage it suffers as a result of carrying out the Customer's instructions or which is related to any breach of the Customer's obligations, and will pay all costs and expenses (including professional fees) incurred in, and the Company's reasonable charges for, dealing with the breach and its consequences. The Customer will pay an extra charge equal to the amount of any fine or penalty payable by the Company wholly or partly as a result of a breach by the Customer. If the Company suspects a breach of Condition 2, it may refuse to accept the Goods, demand their immediate removal, or itself arrange their removal without notice, at the Customer's expense.

INSURANCE AND THE COMPANY'S LIABILITY FOR LOSS

- 3.1. Except as provided in Condition 3.5, the Company does not insure the Goods and the Customer shall self-insure or make arrangements to cover the Goods against all insurable risks to their full insurable value (including all duties and taxes) with any right for the insurer to bring a subrogated claim against the Company being excluded.

- 3.2. Subject to Condition 3.3, the Company excludes all liability for Loss however arising.
- 3.3. If and to the extent that Loss is directly caused by negligence or wilful act or default of the Company, its employees (acting in furtherance of their duties as employees) or sub-contractors or agents (acting in furtherance of their duties as subcontractors or agents) and subject to Conditions 3.4, 3.7 and 3.8, the Company will accept liability for Loss assessed on normal legal principles but not exceeding the Limit fixed by Condition Any quantification of value includes duties and taxes.
- 3.4. In no case shall the Company be liable for any lost profit, income or savings, wasted expenditure, or indirect or consequential loss.
- 3.5. In no case shall any liability of the Company (including inter alia any liability in respect of duties and taxes) exceed the Limit, fixed as follows:-
 - 3.5.1. The Customer may specify the Limit as an amount (in Sterling, US Dollars or Euros) per tonne weight by notice in writing stating the Limit and the nature and maximum value of the Goods, including duty and taxes. The Limit nominated by the Customer shall apply in respect of any cause of action arising after the Date. It is a condition of the contract that the Customer pays within 7 days of receipt the Company's invoices for its costs in insuring against its potential liability up to the Limit, and/or to the extent that the Company elects to carry the risk itself, its extra charge equivalent to the estimated or likely cost of such insurance.
 - 3.5.2. If the Company having made reasonable efforts is unable to obtain insurance on reasonable terms to cover its liability up to the Limit nominated by the Customer, or if the Customer has not yet paid any invoice issued under Condition 3.5.1, the Company may give 7 days written notice, and the Limit for causes of action arising after expiry shall be £100 sterling per tonne.
 - 3.5.3. Unless and until a higher Limit has been fixed under Condition 3.5.1 and continues in effect, the Limit shall be £100 sterling per tonne.
- 3.6. Without prejudice to the Company's rights under Condition 6 to be paid free from deduction or set-off, any limitation of liability on the part of the Company shall be applied to any claim by the Customer before any set off or counterclaim is asserted against money due to the Company.
- 3.7. The Company shall not be liable for any claim unless: it has received written notice of it within 10 days of the event giving rise to the claim coming to the knowledge of the Customer or consignee; and it has received within 21 days of the event giving rise to the claim coming to the knowledge of the Customer or consignee sufficient detail in writing to enable investigation. In the case of failure to deliver, time shall run from the first working day after the expected date of delivery.
- 3.8. No legal proceedings (including any counterclaim) may be brought against the Company unless they are issued and served within 9 months of the event giving rise to the claim.
- 3.9. The Company shall not be liable for any Loss to the extent that it is caused or contributed to by a breach of any of the Customer's obligations in Condition 2, or by any of the circumstances by virtue of which the Company is relieved of its obligations under Condition 8.

EMPLOYEES, SUB-CONTRACTORS AND OTHERS

- 4.1. The Company shall be entitled to sub-contract all or any part of its obligations and in this event these Conditions shall apply to such services. Where storage is subcontracted the Company will on request notify the Customer of the location of the Goods.
- 4.2. No Interested Party will make a claim or issue proceedings in respect of Loss against any Additional Party.
- 4.3. Without prejudice to Condition 4.2, if an Additional Party pays or is liable to make a payment to an Interested Party in connection with a claim for Loss, the Interested Party will fully indemnify the Company against any claim (including all costs and expenses) by the Additional Party against the Company for reimbursement of, contribution to or indemnity against that payment to the extent that it exceeds the Limit applicable at the time of the event giving rise to the claim.

CHANGE OF CUSTOMER

5. The Customer may give written authority for the Goods or any part to be transferred to the account of another party on condition that before the effective date of the transfer the other party notifies the Company in writing that it is to become the Customer and is to be bound by these Conditions and by any notice given under Condition 3 and will pay the Company's charges for the period after the effective date. The Customer will pay the charges for the period until the later of the effective date or receipt and acceptance by the Company of the other party's written notification. The Goods remain subject to any lien which applies at the time of transfer.

CHARGES, PAYMENTS AND LIEN

- 6.1. The Company's charges are subject to VAT and may be increased by prior notice to the Customer. The notice shall be at least 7 days for increases reflecting any rise in fuel costs and at least 21 days otherwise. The Company has the right to charge for storage of the Goods for so long as it has custody of or is responsible for them.
- 6.2. The charges shall be paid free of any deduction or set-off at such periodic intervals as may have been agreed between the parties and in any event on the earlier of (a) the expiry of any agreed period of credit and (b) the time immediately before any of the Goods cease to be in the Company's care or control. The Company shall be entitled to payment for carriage at the time the Goods are loaded onto the vehicle.
- 6.3. Interest shall be paid on money overdue to the Company at the rate of 2% for each calendar month during all or part of which it is overdue.

- 6.4. The Company shall (on its own behalf and as agent for any assignee of its invoices) have a general and particular lien on the Goods (and any associated documentation or records) as security for payment of all sums (whether due or not) claimed by the Company from, or invoiced to, the Customer or another Interested Party on any account (relating to the Goods or not), or otherwise claimed in respect of the Goods or other property of an Interested Party. Storage shall be charged for any goods detained under lien.

TERMINATION

- 7.1. The Goods shall be removed by the Customer at the time agreed between the parties. The Company may at any time by notice in writing to the Customer require the removal of the Goods within 14 days from the date of such notice or, in the case of perishable goods, within 3 days.
- 7.2. Where the Customer fails to comply with Condition 7.1, or any payment from the Customer is overdue, the Company may, without prejudice to its other rights and remedies against the Customer, notify the Customer in writing that the Goods may be sold or otherwise disposed of at the Customer's entire risk and expense if such payment is not made and/or such Goods are not removed within 21 days, or in the case of perishable goods within 3 days, from the date of such notice. On expiry of the period, if such payment has not been made and/or the Goods have not been so removed the Company may sell or otherwise dispose of the Goods or any part at the Customer's entire risk and expense by an appropriate method, and any proceeds of sale or disposal shall be remitted to the Customer after deduction of all expenses and all amounts claimed by the Company and any assignee of its invoices.

FORCE MAJEURE

8. The Company shall be relieved of its obligations to the extent that their performance is prevented or delayed by, or their non-performance results wholly or partly from, the act or omission of the Customer or its agent or an Interested Party (including any breach by the Customer of these Conditions) or by storm, flood, fire, explosion, civil disturbance, governmental or quasi-governmental action, breakdown or unavailability of premises, equipment or labour, or other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Company.

GENERAL

- 9.1. Each exclusion or limitation in these Conditions exists separately and cumulatively.
- 9.2. Signature on a delivery note is evidence that the Goods have been received in apparently good order save as noted
- 9.3. The Company may open up packaging to inspect Goods
- 9.4. Any notice shall be duly given if left at or sent by first class prepaid post to the last known address of the other party or by facsimile to the last notified number evidenced by a successful transmission record, or by email to the last address notified for the purpose of service; and shall if posted be deemed to have been given 2 working days after posting, and if by facsimile or email, one working day after sending
